Jumeirah Golf Estates: Earth Course

Established in 2009
Designed by Greg Norman

Home to DP World Tour Championship, Dubai

Top 20 Golf Courses of the Middle East 2017: ranked #5

The World’s 100 Greatest Golf Courses: ranked #97

Inspired by the great parkland courses of Europe and North America, Earth is home to the DP World Tour Championship, Dubai sets the scene for an incredible experience. The rolling fairways, brilliant white bunkering and deep red ochre landscape are framed by a plethora of trees and shrubs making each hole picture perfect. The abundance of nature is reflected in the many lakes throughout the experience which are home to a myriad of wildlife. The journey is concluded where the last 4 holes play alongside or over water culminating in a meandering creek running the full length of the final hole.
Jumeirah Golf Estates: Fire Course

Framed by a wide variety of captivating flora carefully selected to reflect the overall theme and to enhance its natural setting. Fire is in complete harmony with its surroundings. The undulating topography with its considerable protrusions creates a more challenging level of play. Rustic and so visually stunning as to captivate even those who do not golf. The Fire course demands a well-thought-out strategy. Going directly at the flag may not always be the best approach which gives Fire a strong sense of classic links-style play.

The Majlis Championship course is a challenging par 72, 7,301-yard layout. Designed by Florida-based course architect Karl Litten, the original 18 holes were built in and around the dunes of a beautiful site on the edge of the city.
A par-72, the course has proved to be as popular as its predecessor and lures players to the challenge of its 7,052 yards. ‘The Faldo’ has surpassed all of its expectations and is regarded as one of the finest courses in Dubai.
